

NICK JONAS

A multi-talented singer, songwriter, actor, and producer, Nick Jonas' illustrious career has spanned across music, acting, writing, producing, and philanthropy over the past 25 years. He first began his career on stage at the age of eight, booking his first gig as Tiny Tim in an off-Broadway production of A Christmas Carol in 2000 at the legendary Madison Square Garden. Immediately catching the eye of Broadway producers, he went on to perform in theatrical productions of Annie Get Your Gun (2001), Beauty and the Beast (2002), Les Misérables (2003), The Sound of Music (2003), How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying (2012), The Last Five Years (2025), and more. Beyond theater, Nick's story as one-third of Jonas Brothers remains well-documented—especially given the band's chart-dominating 2019 comeback Happiness Begins, sold-out world tours, and a subsequent GRAMMY® Award nomination. He has also established himself as a dynamic solo artist with a penchant for breaking boundaries. His 2014 self-titled album yielded the triple-platinum "Jealous," double-platinum "Chains," and gold-certified "Levels." Its 2016 follow-up Last Year Was Complicated spawned the anthem "Close" [feat. Tove Lo] and brought his streams into the billions. That same year, he was also honored with the prestigious Hal David Starlight Award by the Songwriters Hall of Fame. Nick was then nominated for a Golden Globe for Best Original Song for his co-written song "Home" from the 2017 animated film Ferdinand. Nick has also distinguished himself in the world of film and television. Most recently, he starred in The Good Half, delivering a knockout performance in his first leading role, and wrapped production for an upcoming film titled Power Ballad, where he is set to star alongside actor Paul Rudd. Nick will also soon star in the upcoming filmed production of the beloved Broadway musical Jersey Boys. Along the way, he has captivated audiences as a re-occurring judge on NBC's The Voice and in big screen favorites such as Jumanji: Welcome to the Jungle, Ugly Dolls, Midway, Jumanji: The Next Level, Chaos Walking, and most recently A Very Jonas Christmas Movie. An active philanthropist, Nick is also the co-founder of Beyond Type 1, a nonprofit organization changing what it means to live with diabetes. Through platforms, programs, resources and grants, Beyond Type 1 is uniting the global diabetes community and providing solutions to improve lives today. 2025 marked a special year for Nick and Jonas Brothers as they celebrated their 20th anniversary as a band. Most recently, they released their new studio album, Greetings from Hometown, and hit the road with their highly anticipated 'JONAS20: Greetings From Your Hometown' Tour, which kicked off on August 10th at MetLife Stadium.
