About Tim McGraw:

McGraw's unparalleled career includes sales of over 106 million records worldwide, 49 number one singles, 19 number one albums and countless industry awards and accolades. He holds the record for second-most #1 albums in the U.S. just behind George Strait. His unique chart achievements include having three singles in the Top 20 of the radio charts on multiple occasions, as well as having two singles spend over 10 weeks at number one. He has brought to life some of the biggest hit singles of all-time, including "Live Like You Were Dying" and "Humble and Kind," a message that continues to impact fans around the world, including a Spanish version sung by McGraw. He has routinely been cited as one of the biggest touring artists in the history of country music and his 2024 "Standing Room Only Tour" ended the year as one of the top tours in country music. As part of the host committee, McGraw welcomed the largest outdoor crowd ever in Nashville during his performance at the 2019 NFL Draft. He has also appeared in the NFL Tailgate party for Superbowl LII and the College Football Playoffs. He headlined the first Major League Baseball game in the history of Tennessee, the MLB Speedway Classic at Bristol Motor Speedway. As a co-founder of Nashville's first-ever PRCA ProRodeo, Music City Rodeo, McGraw debuted his new song "King Rodeo (Live from the Inaugural Music City Rodeo)" to the sold-out crowd at the Bridgestone Arena event. An exclusive video arrived alongside the track on YouTube, highlighting the journey behind the creation and performance of the song and its connection to the rodeo itself, featuring World Champion riders. McGraw's latest EP release Poet's Resume is anchored by the #1 single "One Bad Habit" and he is currently storming the charts with "McArthur," a collaboration with HARDY, Eric Church and Morgan Wallen.
